

Welcome and thank you for joining us at the 43rd Annual Real Estate & Construction Council Gala.

The partnership that Lincoln Center has enjoyed with the leaders of the New York real estate community for the past 43 years has made a tremendous impact on sustaining and strengthening Lincoln Center's role as the world's leading performing arts center and as one of New York City's greatest landmarks. The funds raised by this annual gala provide crucial operating support to the eight resident performing arts organizations and two educational institutions that reside at Lincoln Center. This year's gala has brought in over $1.6 million, which brings the total raised by the real estate industry to more than $28 million since 1973. The remarkable impression these numbers make is matched only by the dedication of our Council members, generous annual donors, and honored guests.

This year's gala honoree is a superb example of a respected and influential industry leader who is ardently committed to supporting our community. Under Michael C. Slocum's leadership, Capital One's Commercial Real Estate division has evolved into a national bank offering diverse solutions for property owners and developers. Furthermore, Mike's philanthropic efforts embody the company's commitment to "Investing for Good." We are thrilled to recognize Mike for these accomplishments and celebrate Capital One's important relationship with Lincoln Center.

On behalf of the Council and Lincoln Center, thank you for all of your support. We hope tonight is a memorable and enjoyable evening!

Sincerely,

This year, Alumni Weekend is extra special for the Class of 2007 because we'll be celebrating our 10th Reunion! A reunion year gives us a chance to reflect on our own high school experiences, remember good friends and good times, teachers, academic, athletic and arts achievements, as well as Hun School traditions like senior trip and the horseshoe at graduation.

The Reunion Committee is planning a memorable celebration for us taking place on Saturday, April 29, 2017. We hope you'll join us and encourage others to come as well. The more classmates we get to attend, the more fun we'll have!

Because this is a special reunion year, we have a Reunion Gift Committee chaired by Sarah Dileo and Jen Jacob. Sarah and Jen will be in touch with you in the coming weeks about our reunion class gift goal. Hun is a central part of who we are today...let's give back to the place that has given us so much!

Our Reunion is just the beginning of the excitement that awaits us during Alumni Weekend. There will be something for everyone: campus tours, alumni games, entertainment and activities for kids, Reunion lunch, varsity athletic events vs. Blair, and of course Reunion Celebrations on Saturday night under the tent.

Watch for the Alumni Weekend Save-the-Date postcard coming soon, and mark your calendars: April 28-29, 2017. Check for Reunion updates on our class Facebook page, Hun School Class of 2007, as well as our School website, www.hunschool.org. Feel free to reach out to us with any questions or ideas – our contact information is below.

We are all busy and pulled in many directions, but ten years is something to celebrate! No matter where you are now, let's show our #raideratheart spirit and reconvene at Russell Hall this April!

Sincerely,

Lucy Obus '07

Welcome and thank you for joining us at the 42nd Annual Real Estate & Construction Council Gala.

We are happy to have this opportunity each year to draw attention to the vital contributions that the real estate and construction industries have made to Lincoln Center since we broke ground in 1959. This year's gala has raised $1,600,000 for the Lincoln Center Corporate Fund, bringing the Council's fundraising total over the past 42 years to over $26,600,000. This support monumentally impacts the stability and strength of operations at eight resident organizations and two professional training academies that make up the best performing arts institution in the world. Our ongoing success is only possible thanks to the dedication of our council members, esteemed donors, and honored guests.

Tonight, we're fortunate to have two distinguished honorees, Gino Martocci and Peter D'Arcy, whose merits include their professional leadership at M&T Bank and their shared philanthropic vision. M&T Bank is a longtime supporter of the programming and fundraising efforts that help fulfill Lincoln Center's mission—to enrich lives through the arts, whether on our campus or through our many outreach initiatives that increasingly expand beyond campus and out into the global community. The pages that follow offer a closer look at the trailblazing programs that are already moving out into all five boroughs through locally planned activities and performances, as well as enhanced digital access.

With two notable honorees this evening, it only makes sense to expect twice the merriment as we commemorate another successful year and look forward to many more. As always, this is only possible thanks to the generous and essential support from everyone who is with us tonight, including our valued partners at M&T Bank.

On behalf of the council and Lincoln Center, we hope you have an exceptional evening!

Sincerely,
